Community Law 101

Dear Community Leader,

Governor O'Malley knows the effect strong communities can have on our collective public safety, therefore, the Governor's Office of Crime Control and Prevention (GOCCP) in partnership with the Community Law Center, the Community College of Baltimore County (CCBC), and the University of Baltimore (UB) will host two free regional trainings. These will provide local community leaders with necessary legal resources to improve public safety throughout the State of Maryland. The Community Law Center is a non-profit law firm providing legal services to community and nonprofit organizations throughout Maryland to promote stronger and more vibrant neighborhoods.

On Tuesday, October 5, 2010, Community Law 101 training will be held at the University of Baltimore from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. This date is reserved only for Baltimore City residents.

On Thursday, October 7, 2010, Community Law 101 training will be held at the Community College of Baltimore County from 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. This date is reserved for all Maryland residents outside of Baltimore City

Community Law 101 will focus on the following areas:

- Organizing and Planning an Effective Strategy for Community Revitalization
- Finding and Negotiating with Property and Business Owners
- Nuisance Abatement Strategies to Combat Drugs, Trash and Prostitution

Beverages will be provided. To register, please fill out the attached registration form and return to Colin Becker by September 30th

Sincerely,

Kristen Mahoney
Executive Director
